niles an hour. The Pennsylvania and Disastrous Conflagration in Two Eastern Cities Yesterday. UTICA (N. Y.), January 29th.-Malone, Franklin county, was visited by a terrible fire this morning. It was first discovered in the crockery store of M. C. Fuller, situated in the Empire or Howard House block, and was then under full headway. Owing to the hydrants being frozen, no water could be obtained from them, and a long delay was caused from the fact that connections had to be made at the river and the water forced up by steamers. Meanwhile the fire had completely gutted the above store and communicated to the Howard House, and was under good headway when the water was ready to pour on

During the burning of the Howard House an explosion, presumably of gas, occurred, blowing out portions of the brick walls and killing Isaac Chester, a prominent business man of Malone, who was coming out of the bank, and injuring several others. The whole Empire block, including hotel, opera-house, and all the stores in the block, were completely destroyed.

He was reared in this county, and was a young man of fine promise and generally esteemed.

New York, January 29th.—In the Hospital for the Ruptured and Crippled, at Lexington avenue and Forty-second street, there are 163 crippled children under treatment. About 6:45 o'clock this evening the younger of the children were in bed, others were preparing to retire, and a few of the older children were eating their supper in the basement. Two of the latter, Louisa Fehlig, aged 12, and Mary Greely, aged 10 years, started up stairs to go to bed. On New York, January 29th .- In the Hos-

Both children are suffering from spinul disease, and can walk only with difficulty. Without screaming or manifesting fright in any way, they hurried as rapidly possible to the third floor and told the nurse, Ellen Dougherty, that the building was on fire. The nurse told them not to tell any of the children, and sent them to their rooms. She then sent word by an assistant to Matron Webber, who in turn notified Dr. Gibney, from whom an alarm was sent out. As rapidly as possibly the doctor, nurse and police, as well as a number of citizens and firemen, carried all the children from the burning building.

It was not absolutely necessary for him to have moved the Court to lock up the witness, Parker, who just at this time, of all others, needs to be free to prepare his case against the men he charges with defrauding him. Even if justice should be cheated of its ends by the old man's compromise with the rogues, society can console itself with the reflection that the victim has recovered something of his losses. An excellent choir sang appropriate music. After prayer, scriptural readings and singing, Rev. Mr. Hopper came forward and said it put half or more of his means into crime, and the strongest of circumstantial afforded him great pleasure to introduce to a Sacramento audience an individual who evidence confirms his story, it is not probwas as much of a Christian gentleman as he is a gifted and talented humorist. introduce to you my old-time friend Rob-

When Mr. Burdette stepped forward he was greeted with applause. He is small o tature, has a keen eye, wears a mustache and looks to be several years younger than he really is. He has a pleasant voice, is a rapid and forcible talker, is never at a loss for a word and keeps his audience laughg most of the time at his original wit He said he liked to TALK TO YOUNG MEN. He knew a young man's ways, his im pulses, his errors and temptations. He knew the thousand and one temptations that beset him. I like to talk to the young man about the error of his ways, the evil influences that surround him. A man's religion is what he feels, what he believes and what he does. A man never believe he is bad. No, no; there are 101 worse men than he is in the neighborhood. He ad himself, but not that he is bad. The prodigal son of 1888 is just about the same, not much worse than the one we read about in St. Luke. Young men must wake up t the realization of the fact that the world don't owe any man a living or a dollar. You are the responsible party; man does everything wrong bimself. You have made up you mind to settle down when you get o be about 45. You are now sowing your wild oats. Young man laugh while are sowing your wild oats, for that is the last laugh over that crop. You cannot kill

THE WILD OATS. They resist the blight, the drought, and you will have to gather that crop when the harvest season comes. I am troubled some with insomnia, and as I lay awake in the night I try to think if I ever did an honorable, upright or manly act in my life. If I had I could not think of it, but every mean act that I did in my life comes u until they form a long procession. The only way to fight them is to never do them. Young man, don't be like the prodigal, but stay on the farm. To leave home and launch out as did the prodigal in history tion of the problem whether the murderer has attraction in it, has excitement. There is noise and bustle, there is merriment and nilarity until the purse becomes exhausted. He wakes up some morning to find that the life he has been living is at an end; it sisterhood to again make their presence ended with his purse. His pocket book is gone; he has a headache and one suit of clothes; that's his entire assets. There are many vices worse than intemperance. The man never intends to get drunk. He sets his mark and says, " I will not go beyond that he sets the mark so far off that he blind drunk before he gets there. The appease the most ardent demands of their drunkard is not as mean a man, is not so much a sinner as the individual who sells cloth by a thirty-five-inch yard measure. In recommending a person for a position once a gentleman remarked: "He has but one fault." "What is it?" was the query. "He lies, steals and fights." He was a good young man but he tippled, and the man who drinks does so at his peril. It is ought to enlist the active participation of our people. We cannot do better than to where the cool, sparkling, gurgling water entertain such visitors, and mingle with them and respond to their inquiries concerning the Sacramento valley. They are are the names of the donors. Water, pure water is thus honored the world over. bat there is an elder brother who does not take so kindly to you. He says: "Look here; I know all about him; he's no good;" and then tells all the little mean acts of your entire life. We find these elder brothers everywhere and many of them are in the church. These individuals have memories that only retain mean things. Some of these elder brothers keep a memorandum book in which they dot down with the greatest particularity the date of every little mean act. When God made such a THE strike situation in San Francisco is then tells all the little mean acts of your unchanged. The strikers maintain that conducting their business as usual; they greatest particularity the date of every litman as that his creation was a waste of mud. If you have been mean don't tell us about it; don't show us your sores. You are your father's son; he grasps your hand and welcomes you back. Stand up, hold your head erect, and say: "I am home; I belong here, and I have just as much to say about this ranch as has my elder brother.' ANOTHER MEETING FOR CITY AND COUNTY IMPROVEMENTS.

The Question of Sprinkling Six Principal Roads Leading Out of Sacramento-Shade Trees, Etc.

A meeting of the Committee on Roads and Driveways, together with members of the Committee on Shade Trees, was held at the Improvement Association Rooms Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with full attendance. L. H. Fassett presided and E. Greer acted as Secretary. Reports were made from the several committees appointed at the previous meeting to ascerpointed at the previous meeting, to ascertain the cost for putting in wells, erecting pumps, tanks, etc., for supplying water to sprinkle on the six principal roads leading out of Sacramento.

Mr. Greer thought on the Freeport road four wells would be required, costing $10 each, four pumps costing $26 each, four windmills at $110 each, four platforms at $20 each, and four tanks of 4,000 gallons at $75 each, making a total cost for the "plant" on this road, to furnish water for sprinkling five miles out, $964. For the sprinkling five miles out, $964. For the lower Stockton road, Mr. Greer estimated the wells, windmills, etc., would cost $800. He stated that in order to use the engine at the different wells on a road it would require an extra team and man, and would not therefore be as economical as raising water with windmills.

It was the unanimous opinion, based upon experience, that good self-adjusting windmills, with tanks holding 4,000 gallons, would supply an inexhaustible supply of water for sprinkling purposes, and be but little expense after in place, to keep them in repair. The above figures for the several roads referred to-the Free-COLORED IMMIGRANTS.—Twenty-five col- Jackson, J-street road and Norris grant ored people from the Southern States passed through the city one day last week, en route to Anderson, in Shasta county, and they report that many more of their race.

It was stated that some roads at Florin and elsewhere were already arranging for thus treating roads, for the double purpose of securing first-class high-

Arrangements for the Grand Musical No Cases in Sacramento-Two Light Cases Concert Saturday Evening. The Protestant Orphan Asylum was organized in June, 1867, and during its twen- line; no new cases have been reported, and ty-one years of existence many hundreds the two cases of varioloid are getting along of orphans, half-orphans, abandoned child- nicely, and both are quarantined. There ren, little waifs have been kindly cared for, have been many rumors upon the street brought up properly, given a good educa- about new cases in different portions of the tion and provided with suitable homes. Many a man and woman of to-day, who Secretary of the City Board of Health go once found a shelter in that home for the helpless calls it blessed. If there is any in every nook and corner, and have made one thing that will unloose the purse strings of the charges made by the physicians for vaccimiser; that will wring a penny from the penurious; that will cause a man to divide his last loaf, it is the cry of the orphan. Its appeal for protection of the innocent and small-pox scare is a "bigger thing" for the helpless at once arrests the hardest-hearted, doctors than "the freeze" was for the plum-

The appeal of a child for assistance, the silent appeal of its help-lessness when robbed of its parents, when thrown upon the cold charities of the world while in its infancy, finds a responsive echo in every heart. There are none so hardened, so depraved, so low in the among the little ones, are being held in check, and the cases are all reported as doing quite well. THE BAY STATE. The Coldest Weather Known in Mass chusetts for Seventy Years. Boston, February 29th.-Yesterday wa he coldest day of the season. The foll ng temperatures were reported, with the mercury falling rapidly in most cases Boston, 4° below; Gloucester, 15°; Marble head, 12°; Cape Cod 4°—the coldest for seventy years; North Adams, 10°; Potts-field, 20°; Woodsville, N. H., 20°.

Startling Discovery. The discovery by the inhabitants of a ocality hitherto unvisited by the pestilent courge of fever and ague, that it exists in heir very midst, is decidedly startling. Such discoveries are made at every season n every part of the Union. Subsequently when it is ascertained, as it invariably is such times, through the valuable experience of some one who has been benefited and cured, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a thoroughly efficacious eradicator of the malarial poison, and a means of fortifying the system against it, a feeling of more security and tranquillity reigns throughout the whole neighborhood. Be-sides the febrile forms of malarial disease, dumb ague and ague cake are removed by the potent action of the Bitters, to which science also gives its sanction as a remedy for rheumatism, dyspepsia, constipation liver complaint, debility, kidney trouble and all other diseases impairing the organs of digestion and assimilation.

Sarsaparilla is different from and superior to any Peculiar in combination, proportion and prep aration of ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its medicinal merit, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown. Peculiar in strength and economy-Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which can truly be said, "100 doses one dollar." Medicines in larger and smaller bottles require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla. Peculiar in its "good name at home"—there is more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales abroad, no other preparation has ever attained such popularity in so short a time. Do not be induced to take any other preparation. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. HOOD & CO., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar IN RE GEORGE WEBB, INSOLVENT. PUR.

Golden Specific.

It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely harmless, and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific, it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For sale by JOS.
